Mr Wm Cuddeon

Sir

Yours of 9th June, enclosing five Dollars in part for Mr Ewins taxes for this year, was rec^d in due season, & I meant to answer it immediately, but being very much engaged, laid it by for the time & forgot it till now.

~~I answer~~ To your question whether the Highway Taxes could not be worked out for less than the amount, I answer that as you send the money so promptly, I will do it at twenty per cent discount.

We have had two additional highway taxes to raise since I wrote you last. of which Mr Ewins part is 49 cts. & 2.38 cents. & we have abated an additional school tax - therefore the account of taxes on his this year - now stands thus: -

		Town	3. 67
		Highway -	6. 14
		Additional School -	25
		Additional Highway	49
		in June - - -	49
		Additional Highway	2.38
		in Sept - - -	2.38
			12.52

Can

Additional school tax abated - 25

Cash rec^d in your letter of 9th June 5.00~~Balance due~~ - 7.27Dis^{ct} 20 per cent on highway taxes - 1.807.05

Balance due $ 5.47

r) 9.01

As the amount is over five Dollars, & not easy to admit charge by letter you may if you please send six Dollars, which will make 53 cents for my trouble. -
